

Personnel Changes at CCB

(News from your local, independent bank)

LITTLE VALLEY, NY – As they did earlier this year, senior management at CCB (Cattaraugus County Bank) announces a change in job duties for two more CCB employees. The change(s) allow CCB to further their loan product line, further training of loan personnel, increase new business development and remain strong in the area of compliance.

Jeff Walker has been employed at CCB since October of 2005. He was the manager at CCB's Salamanca branch prior to his promotion to the position of Assistant Vice President and Retail Loan Officer and his move to the main office in Little Valley. Jeff's responsibilities will help CCB grow their high quality loan portfolio, using his advanced experience in the retail loan area, including loan underwriting.

Nan Painter will assume the lead in CCB's Salamanca office, becoming Assistant Vice President, Business Development & Lending and Salamanca Branch Manager. Nan has over 18 years experience in the operational and administrative areas of CCB.

"I am confident that these moves will strengthen our strong and successful community bank," states CCB President and CEO Salvatore Marranta. "Our branch network and our lending area are now stronger than ever. Due to careful strategic planning and internal restructuring, overall efficiencies and growth of our local, independent bank are being recognized. It truly is an exciting time for CCB!"
